

Express Yourself @ your Library

TEENS!

Looking for something to do this summer? Express Yourself @ your library by signing up for Summer Reading 2009. Check out the programs that we'll be having just for teens!

Begins Monday, June 15 and ends Saturday, August 15, 2009.

To sign up, go to www.bcpl.info/summerreading from any computer with Internet access. You'll need to create a user name and password to register. Beginning June 15, stop by the Summer Reading table at your library to pick up your Reading Log. Don't have computer access? Our volunteers will be happy to register you, or you can use one of the branch public computers.

Here's how to play...

Each block on your log equals 10 minutes of a listed activity. Every time you spend 10 minutes on an activity, check off a block or log it online. Activities may be completed more than once and count each time completed. When you reach 20 hours, bring in your completed log or log it online, and enter the Grand Prize Drawing.

- Read a book of your choice.
- Attend a library program.
- Listen to an audio book or music CD.
- Play an instrument or sing a song.
- Make something from recycled materials.
- Create a graphic novel page.
- Attend a concert or play.
- Create a scrapbook page.
- Write a story or a poem.
- Or, Create your own activity.

The last day to pick up prizes and enter the Grand Prize Drawing is Saturday, August 29, 2009.
